

PUBLIC LEDGER

THE REPUBLICAN-1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER-1898.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1901.

PRICE—ONE CENT.

THAT'S THE LEDGER.

The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage says—

"A newspaper whose columns overflow with the advertisements of business men, that more influence is at the disposal of the advertiser than of the city or town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor will locate where there is an enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as newspapers well patronized, and this power should be appreciated."

See Brown's Bargains on second page.

The Rev. John H. Boyet of the First Baptist Church has been authorized to perform the rites of matrimony in this state.

THE SMALL BOY'S IDEA.
The teacher in the Sunday-school had found a promising tale. In getting answers from the tots to questions she might ask:
Till finally she had to stop.
Because, despite her calls,
No one could tell why Nathan took
The gates from train's walls.
She waited long, and just before
she took from why a kid
Held up his hand and said he guessed
He knew why Nathan did.
"Well, tell the class," the teacher said
To little Thomas Green.
Who answered, "Nathan was a lamb,
Because 'Nathan' was his name."
—Judge.

THE BEE HIVE

NO ADMITTANCE!

Don't trade at our store if you are satisfied with paying more than you have to. We are after the thousands of women who aren't—who want the most their money will buy, and we are after them as hard as we know how. TRASH! OH, NO! Against such stuff we post the sign "NO ADMITTANCE." THIS IS THE STORE OF GREATEST ECONOMIES. We couldn't expect nor deserve your patronage by merely doing as well as other stores. WE MUST DO BETTER, and we do. We are proving our right to your trade every day by offering you NEW, SEASONABLE merchandise for very much less than any other store asks for EQUAL quality. It's our ambition to be LEAST for BEST. Not in a line or two, but through the entire store, in every department here; and the constantly increasing business serves as an eloquent evidence that our efforts are meeting success.

A WORD
About our 25c Ladies' Hose. We are determined to make this Hose popular, and if you will compare our 25c Hose with those selling by other houses at 35c and 50c you will see that we have spared no efforts to popularize it. The fact is, on this Hose we are more after your good will than cash.

P. S.—We are sold out of "Graustark," the new book, but will have a new shipment early next week. Leave your orders now.
The Christmas number of The Delineator is in. December Fashion Sheets free.

ANOTHER WORD.
Something about a trade winner. It's our 25c Ladies' Vests and Pants.
We can't tell you so much about them, but if you will come and look—"and seeing is believing"—you won't wonder why we order 1,000 garments of this one number at a time.

We are too busy to make a new price for each customer; one does for everybody.

The recent loss by fire on L. F. Knoedler's drugstore at Augusta is estimated at about $25,000, with $15,000 insurance.

OLD MAYSVILLE COUPLE.

Dr. and Mrs. Warden to Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Warden will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Monday at their home in Louisville.

Probably in all the South there is no better known Minister of the Baptist faith than the Rev. J. W. Warden. He was ordained at Frankfort in 1860 and two years later he accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist Church in this city.

A few months after he began his duties he married Miss Elizabeth L. Turman.

For five years they resided in Maysville, Dr. Warden then accepting the pastorate of the Walnut Street Baptist Church. Later he moved to Afton, Kan., and from there to Lawrence, Kas.

Twenty-six years ago he moved to Louisville and for five years was Pastor of the Walnut Street Baptist Church, giving up the pastorate there to take charge of the missionary work in Kentucky. For the past year he has had charge of Institute work, and his efforts have been along educational lines.

CONVICTS KILLED.

Eleven of the 26 Who Escaped From the Stockade at Leavenworth Accounted For.

FIVE WERE DISCOVERED IN A BARN.

In a Running Duel With a Posse Two Were Shot to Death, One Captured and Two Wounded.

None of the Pursuing Party Were Hurt—Seven More Men Were Captured in Different Places Without Resistance.

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 9.—Eleven of the 26 convicts who escaped from the stockade of the new federal penitentiary here have been accounted for. Two of the five are dead. The fourth, Willard Drake, white, aged 39, is wounded and in jail. The fifth, Fred Moore, aged 16, a Negro, recaptured, also wounded. The five men were discovered in the barn of Fay Weishar, a quarter of a mile from Nortonville, Kan.

Weishar went into the barn and was ordered out at the point of guns. He went to Nortonville and gathered a wagon load of men, who, with revolvers, shotguns and a few Winchester, hastened to the scene. The convicts saw the men coming and rushed from the barn. They had two shotguns and revolvers. The posse pursued them, and a running duel resulted. At every volley from the posse one of the convicts fell. After two of them fell, two of the others gave themselves up, both being wounded. The fifth was fully 2000 yards away from the posse. Winchester drew a bead on him and fired. He was evidently hard hit, but tried to go on, and a volley was fired at him and he fell dead. None of the citizens were hurt.

Those Still at Large. One of the convicts still at large is a military prisoner, and the remainder were serving terms for robbery or assault. One is an Indian and two are Negroes. Warden McLaughlin says he will capture every one of the men. In the districts around the city every road and river crossing that the fugitives might be expected to use is guarded by armed men, the farmers having turned out to earn the $50 reward that was paid for the return of each convict.

Two more convicts, Donald Norie and E. L. Davenport, were captured in a field two miles north of Nortonville. They were hiding in a ravine, and being unarmed, they surrendered without resistance. Two escaped convicts were caught in Topeka. At midnight only 15 of the fugitives were free.

The sheriff of Douglas county has captured two convicts at Lawrence, Kan. The convicts captured at Lawrence are Ole Babo, a half-breed Indian, and Joseph H. Drekin, a soldier, serving a term for desertion and assault to kill. Frank Thompson, the Negro desperado, who led the outbreak, is supposed to be near Lawrence, heavily armed. He will probably not be taken alive.

CALLAHAN NOT GUILTY. Acquitted of the Charge of Perjury in His Trial in Connection With the Cudahy Kidnapping.

Omah, Neb., Nov. 9.—The jury in the case of James Callahan, after being out 36 hours, brought in a verdict, finding the defendant not guilty, and the prisoner was discharged. This is the latest chapter of the mystery surrounding the kidnapping of Eddie Cudahy, son of E. A. Cudahy, the millionaire packer, and this is practically the second time that Callahan has been acquitted of the kidnapping charge. Callahan was first tried about nine months ago on a charge of robbery, there being no evidence in Nebraska making kidnapping a violation of the law. Acquitted of this charge, Callahan was then tried on a charge of perjury in connection with the robbery trial, and again acquitted.

Satisfied All French Demands.

The Teurukho Kan on the Rocks Off Goto Island and Her Crew of 50 Were Drowned.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 9.—The steamer Adelaide has arrived after a stormy passage of 20 days from Kobe, Japan. She brought news of the weather of the Japanese coast and made very little headway for three days. From the Japanese port she brought news of the loss of the steamer Teurukho Kan, a 20,000 ton vessel, which ran on the rocks off Goto island on October 11 and her crew of 50 were lost. The steamer was carrying coal from Kobe to Hong-Kong.

NEGLECTED PATIENTS.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Strong evidence to show that Mrs. Kate Green and her husband, John Green, who is practically the second time that Callahan has been acquitted of the kidnapping charge. Callahan was first tried about nine months ago on a charge of robbery, there being no evidence in Nebraska making kidnapping a violation of the law. Acquitted of this charge, Callahan was then tried on a charge of perjury in connection with the robbery trial, and again acquitted.

ROBBER SUSPECT.

John Rose, Under Arrest at St. Louis, Identified as H. Longbaugh, a Western Desperado.

THE IDENTIFICATION IS COMPLETE.

He, With Another Man and Woman, Flooded Hot Springs With the Helena, Mont., Bar's Notes.

Estimated That $2,000 of the Money Stolen in the Great Northern Robbery Was Left in Hot Springs, Ark.

St. Louis, Nov. 9.—John Rose, the man suspected of the robbery of an express car on the Great Northern railroad, near Wagner, Mont., July 3, last, and who was arrested in this city by detectives on Tuesday, has been identified as Harry Longbaugh, a celebrated western desperado. The identification was made by a St. Louis man, who desires his name withheld. He was prosecuting attorney of Cook county, Wyoming, in 1887, and prosecuted Longbaugh in that year on a charge of horse-stealing. Longbaugh was convicted and sentenced to 18 months in jail. The prosecuting attorney described to Chief Desmond the distinguishing marks of the Longbaugh of 1887, and as these are all found upon Desmond's prisoner, he is satisfied that he has the bandit properly identified.

Chief of Detectives Desmond said he would, if necessary, send for one of the officers of Wagner, at the department's expense, to come here and identify Longbaugh. Hot Springs, Ark., Nov. 9.—Harry Longbaugh and another man, the former now under arrest with a woman, Laura Burdette, in St. Louis, are suspected of connection with the crime that robbed the Great Northern express car last July, and on whom much of the unpaid stolen money was found. They are believed to be persons who flooded this city with the Helena, Mont., bank notes.

It is claimed that Longbaugh, while in this hair, eyebrows and moustache dyed by a barber. Longbaugh is thought to have left here Wednesday or Thursday last week, but the other man, who was on the streets here as late as Tuesday evening. The officials of the bank here estimate that no less than $2,000 of the stolen money was found in this city. Every day somebody brings one or more to the banks for deposit. A farmer received one from a prominent merchant in part payment for a bale of cotton.

FRENCH MOVE IN TURKEY.

The United States Government is Not Concerned Immediately in the Republic's Doings.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The answer of the United States government to the French overture respecting France's movement in Turkish waters is understood to have been conveyed already by Secretary Hay to M. Margerie, the French charge here, and to have consisted of a statement that the United States government is not concerned immediately in the republic's doings, in view of the French statement that it was not proposed to affect the trade in the country. It is surmised also that our government is not dissatisfied at the establishment by France of a precedent for the collection of indemnities from Turkey.

One Bandit Killed and One Injured in An Attempt to Hold Up a Gambling House.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 9.—One bandit was killed and one injured in an attempt by three masked robbers to hold up the gambling house of Deel & Co., at Naco, an Arizona border town. The dead bandit has been identified as Will Craven, of Dog Springs, N. M.

A group of gamblers obeyed when the desperado entered the saloon and demanded "Hands up." Craven approached the roulette table and proceeded to fill a bag with the bank roll. E. Ellis whipped out a revolver and Craven fell dead when he shot. The other bandits were demoralized and fled. One of them was wounded by another bullet from Ellis' revolver. They mounted their horses and rode for the mountains closely followed by a posse, which had been hastily organized.

GOV. HUNT'S TRIP.

Delighted Over the Spirit of Co-operation He Found in the Various Sections of Porto Rico.

San Juan, P. R., Nov. 9.—Gov. Hunt has returned from his tour of the islands. He expressed himself as delighted with the spirit of co-operation which he found throughout the various sections of the country and the increased hopefulness of the people. He reports that the crops indicate a heavy sugar production and a large yield of coffee. Improvements in municipal arrangements are also noticeable, and intense interest was shown in education wherever he went. There was a demand for more schools. Fifty thousand pupils are attending schools, and 200,000 are about to obtain tuition.

MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING.

An Express Messenger Found in a Dying Condition on His Car at Elwood, Neb.

Grand Island, Neb., Nov. 9.—Z. T. Fishburn, a Wells-Fargo express messenger, was found in a dying condition in his car on a St. Joseph & Grand Island train when it arrived at Elwood, Neb. There were two bullet holes just below the heart. The man was unable to tell anything of the cause of the shooting, and it is not known whether he was accidentally or in an attempt of bandits to rob the car. Everything in the safe was found intact. None of the trainmen seem to throw any light on the shooting.

Sypod of Figs
NEVER IMITATED—OF QUALITY.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYPYR or FIOS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIO SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, distilling cold, headachy, nervous, gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing it is used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the plants are obtained from seeds and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIO SYRUP CO., only. In order to get the beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the name of the company printed on the front of every package.

An Open Letter.

We desire to say that our business since January 1st has passed the mark anticipated. We wish to be assured that therefore we are not attempting to talk to business people and put in the form of a polished essay. The advantage of having merchandise discounter from your competitors is apparent, provided that the retailer is known to be reliable. Does not a good deal of advertising appear to you as though the advertisers were indulging too freely in Fine Words? Most of them seem to say something that means nothing. Names are invented for goods that have no bearing whatever to the materials; turned and twisted until they are no longer relevant, all of which is done to tone the product, because the producer hasn't enough of it. Fine feathers make fine birds, but fine words do not make fine goods. We are strong believers in advertising because it is a good thing, but advertising doesn't pay unless constructed on a proper basis, and that is to plainly tell people what you have to sell, and sell it as low as is consistent with legitimate business methods.

Our spring importation of Dress Goods, White Goods, Carpets, Mattings and Housekeeping Goods generally is complete. Come and learn prices which will be found to be as cheap as the cheapest, quality considered. Respectfully,
GEORGE COX & SON.
